

LAURA LYE HOLIDAY LETS

What makes a great holiday? For me, the perfect ingredients are a wonderful place to stay, great company, having time to relax, delicious food, a few treats and fun excursions.

To help you find the perfect balance I have put together a few ideas of things to make your holiday extra special!

ARUNDEL TOWN

- Arundel itself is dominated by the magnificent Arundel Castle (open from April to October) with its beautifully preserved tapestries, armour and art collections. There are inspiring gardens, exciting jousting displays and historical festivals. Tours of the castle are available www.arundelcastle.org There is an interesting museum opposite the main gates of the castle www.arundelmuseum.org
- Visit the imposing Arundel Cathedral www.arundelcathedral.org
- There are magnificent walks and views across the South Downs countryside from Arundel Park. Walk down the hill in the park and you will come to Swanbourne Lake where you can hire a boat to go rowing www.swanbournelodgetearoom.co.uk/summer-boats A little further on is the Arundel Wetlands Centre – home to a collection of over 50 species of wildfowl from around the world in a natural setting www.wwt.org.uk
- If you enjoy a family activity Arundel Lido has swimming and aqua aerobics www.arundel-lido.com. Horse riding lessons are available on New Road, Arundel <http://www.arundelridingcentre.co.uk> or just past the castle main gate is a mini golf centre, cafe and public tennis courts www.arundelputtinggreenandcafe.co.uk
- If you are a larger group what about going to the old Arundel Jailhouse for a murder mystery evening? www.arundeljailhouse.co.uk/murder-mystery-evening
- One of the highlights of Arundel's calendar is The Arundel Festival held in August: a joyful celebration of music, theatre, culture, food and drink. There is a delightful art trail held in private homes and public spaces across Arundel and the local area www.arundelfestival.co.uk. Arundel also host another great festival in the winter 'Arundel at Christmas' is the perfect way to kick start your Christmas celebrations!

BEACHES AND WATERSPORTS

- West Beach: located past Littlehampton Links golf course at the end of Rope Walk. There is a great fish and chip shack on the beach called West Beach Café (open summer months only www.facebook.com/westbeachcafe1/) and the beach is just a little further along.
- Climping Beach: The beach is mostly stone but reveals a little sand at low tide with good rock pooling areas. There is a huge grassed area behind the beach perfect for family cricket or rounders and a no frills café for a cuppa.
- Felpham Beach: A great promenade which stretches from Middleton to Bognor Regis: a fun and easy stretch of the coast for for prams, bikes and wheelchair users to negotiate. There is an excellent eat in café and ice cream shop called the Lobster Pot The Lobster Pot | West Sussex Coast
- West Wittering Beach: The most famous beach in the area. It is sandy and very, very long with pathways through the dunes. Beware that the traffic can be heavy during peak season. If you are interested in learning how to surf, windsurf, kitesurf or sup board book ahead at www.2xs.co.uk
- Chichester Watersports offer windsurfing, wakeboarding, waterskiing, kayaking, ringo rides and ten-man banana boat rides www.chichesterwatersports.co.uk
